THE FRAGRANCE OF LIFE

(Alluring Reflections of Milestones Achieved)

issue-9 2022-2023

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Children are similar to seeds and parents and teachers need to play the role of gardeners and not of potters. Our role is of nurturing the children, rather than dictating them. Competition generates fear and fear stops learning. We try to create an environment, where co-operation and joy of work are the key motivating factors. The aim behind starting Anand Niketan School was that quality education should be available at all levels and for all. It is my positive belief that all children have the qualities to be successful in life.

Some of these qualities possessed by children are truthfulness, living in the present, love for all, not giving up in life, forgiveness, curiosity... our duty is only to make sure that these qualities are not suppressed in the name of development, either at home or at school. Through my years of experience, I have come to believe, that school plays an important role in the academic development of the students. However, the parents play a major role, in nurturing them to be emotionally balanced personalities. So, I was and I am of the firm opinion that today we need more schools for healthy parenting and teaching. Let us join hands together and create a better future for our children.

Shri Kamal Mangal Chairman Anand Niketan Group of Schools

TRUSTEE'S MESSAGE

I believe school plays a pivotal role in making people great, who in turn make a nation great. School education becomes a key to shape a nation's destiny. School inculcates values that give meaning and strength to a person's character by occupying central place in his/her life. They embellish one's behaviour with good qualities and prompt him to become, as said Albert Einstein "not a man of success, but rather a man of values."

Teachers are sowers of seeds of learning in the receptive minds of the young. They are beacon lights and towers of strength. At Anand Niketan, we have the very best of teachers who translate our vision of education into reality. They devote their time and energy with patience and warmth to inspire the students to excel in their goals; our results speak of their perseverance for attainment of excellence year after year.

At Anand Niketan, Maninagar, we identify hidden potential in every single child and encourage him/her in both scholastic and co-scholastic fields. We have oriented our system of education to be in complete harmony with the 21st century needs. SMART goal (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic and Time Bound) sums up our holistic approach to education. We have equipped the school with Science & Maths labs, smart class rooms and interactive green boards. Our computer aided education makes learning both interesting and absorbing. Our focus is always on all round development. We train the students to grow them as responsible global citizens.

"I firmly believe that Anand Niketan Maninagar with all enlivening atmosphere helps students to get a lifetime experience."

Shri Amit Shah Trustee Anand Niketan Maninagar

Curriculum Instruction Coordinator's MESSAGE

Anand Niketan Maninagar has always believed in a holistic approach to its pedagogy. Our teaching and learning approach focus on the development of the whole person-cognitive, physical, emotional and spiritual well-being. It is an educational philosophy that recognizes that education is not just about acquiring knowledge, but also about developing characters, values and life skills that are essential for personal growth and social responsibility.

Education has always been an essential part of human development. From the early days of formal schooling, the focus has been on teaching student's specific subjects and providing them with the knowledge and skills required to succeed in life. However, with time, it has become evident that a narrow focus on academic performance alone does not provide the best preparation for success in life. Hence, we as an institute emphasize experiential learning and encourage students to explore their interests and passions. It is based on the idea that learning is most effective when it is integrated into the student's life experience. For example, instead of just reading about history, students might visit historical sites or participate in re-enactments of historical events. This approach helps students to connect what they are learning with their own lives, making learning more meaningful and relevant.

I strongly believe in the importance of creating a positive learning environment for our students. This means creating a safe and supportive space for students to learn and grow. It involves building positive relationships between students, teachers and parents to foster a sense of community and belonging.

The idea is to develop character, strong values and life skills that are essential for personal growth and social responsibility. In this era, knowledge is available at a click but I believe that schooling should nurture their intellect, enhance their skills and make them 21st-century-ready! This has always been our philosophy. Holistic education is not just for children. It is an approach that can be applied to all stages of life. It is about the pursuit of lifelong learning and personal growth. I would like to encourage individuals to become lifelong learners and continue to explore and discover new things throughout their lives.

Anand Niketan Maninagar nurtures individuals who are seeking fulfilling and meaningful life because that's what makes one truly educated.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Competition and stress are the two most important words which are most pertinent for today's generation. Competition is no doubt stressful but it is also a driver of personal growth. Is competition always stressful? Does competition always give us sleepless nights? What way should one start preparing for competition? There are end number of questions that always peep in our mind.

According to me there are two types of competitions – external competition and self-competition. When we indulge ourselves in external competition, we work on the points which are needed to beat others, we cherish and spend time by thinking about how the person will feel low when he/she will lose to us. We invest most of our time to think of that moment which must have a negative impact on our time and performance; because at that time rather than focusing on the points of preparation we indulge ourselves in thinking about the outcome after the victory rather than working on the weak points of self, we are creating stress to chase rules for beating others. Actually, most people do not bother that we win or lose but in order to see ourselves victorious in the eyes of others, we forget to prioritize our self-realization and self-correction points.

So, what do you think? Is external competition productive? According to me, self-competition is much more productive and best version of competition. Competition should be chasing your own unrealized potential, to get better version of yourself every single day. Every goal we choose to take in life should have a well-defined purpose. It can be driven by own internal value system. When we indulge ourselves in external competition, we allow other's values to define our goals but in self-competition we follow our own value system to decide our personal growth matrices. Each failure we see in life is a learning experience in self-competition.

How to differentiate between an external and self-competition? For example, when we are at a boxing ring, we are competing with others. But when we are at an athletic track, every time, we are checking our previous timing to reach the victory line.... With every single practice we need to try and reduce the timing to reach the victory line..... that's unfolding better version of ourselves That is self-competition.

It's very difficult not to look at people who are ahead of you in life definitely we should look at them from the point of inspiration... but not from the point of competition.

I will pen down by saying You do your work, enjoy the process of doing the work, don't try too hard to prove yourself in the eyes of others it will create stress which will affect your journey to do the work if your work has merit, today or tomorrow others will definitely recognize it. When we don't demand or expect from life.... just do our work with patience Life always gives us back beyond our expectation.

Make your past-self your competitor and your future self 'A Hero' you cherish to look up to.

VICE PRINCIPAL'S

Isn't it amazing to write on this topic? Yes, it is as there are enormous things, facts, truths and topics which leave us amazed. For me it has great depth as I am the one who deals with students, their queries, their expectations and frustrations as well. As I look upon my mentor to pull me out smoothly from the trench of troubles the same is for my students when they are in trouble.

We all try to match with the level of expectations to prove our worth. But do we really put our genuine efforts? The answer is very simple: it depends. If someone is able to understand the graveness of the situation then thumb-up, what if not, then the level of frustration will mount up. This is what we need to understand and reduce the difference between a teacher and a student.

Both need to come down to an understanding level to bridge the gap and reach the aspired target. To solve the problems, they are needed to be discussed, understood, analyzed and resolved. Whatever may be the thought process it can always be amended and mended there is no need to stretch it. An elastic can be stretched up to an extended length but finally takes back its original length. The bottom line is, we really need to ponder upon the line 'What do I understand?' Let's together simplify the situations with talks and quick effective solutions which would surely help to make the future bright and make everyone happy.

COORDINATOR'S MESSAGE

If you ask me what drives me and motivates me everyday to feel alive, is my addiction of becoming Ms. Perfectionist in every work I do. As every addiction has its pros and cons, so has mine.

In the race to become Ms. Perfectionist I miss the journey to reach to Perfection level, as I am always hindered by the negative thoughts that if I do not execute this work in the patterned way to perfection, my image as Ms. Perfectionist will be tarnished. Let me give you few examples of Perfect personslike Michael Jackson, he was a perfectionist and his music changed the genre as people knew it. Leonardo Da Vinci, an another perfectionist whose inventions paved the path for so many machines we see today. So, do you think they had their fear? Every perfectionist fears mistakes, ironic right, but that is the factor which pushes them to realize the goals. Here, fear morphs itself as a motivator which helps me to succeed where others fail. Wanting to become perfect, but not able to make into reality, can turn the desire in unnecessary stress and anxiety. So, it is not a compulsion to jeopardize health in sake of attaining perfection to that level. So, always strive for the progress and give your 100%, eventually you will become perfect as well don't forget to enjoy the process which is most important as it is well said:

"Progress is more important than perfection."

COORDINATOR'S MESSAGE

Those days were fear free where days started hearing my name, Not the same as the present, when fearful eyes are at the clock striking for a new game!

Running around the corridors were counted as blessings, Unlike the current opportunities to fulfill different kinds of cravings!

Gossips and updates were limited to whose next, Hardly do we know now who is living at the door next!

Coming all the way down to the aisle in search of a cookie, Praying for an existence where no one is beside me as a newbie!

COORDINATOR'S MESSAGE

WHILE WE TEACH CHILDREN ALL ABOUT LIFE,

We as a parent always want our children to be the best amongst all and in this race we forget the tender age of the children which is not only for learning but also can teach a lot. Now at this point of time you must be thinking how can a small child teach me ...in Gujarati there is a saying 'Me tara karta vadhare Diwali joi chhe', ...no need to explain what I want to say.

We all have a role to play in life and while doing that we might also have to listen or get scolding from many people, may be the boss or senior or may be our better half. We keep those things in our heart and keep grudges. Now, let's talk about our little ones. They have friends, teachers, parents and many more in their list. Each and every one getting angry on them, of course for their betterment. Do they ever keep grudges in their heart and say that ... 'I don't want to talk to you'...No na ...? Now tell me.. when our little ones do something with lots of hardwork, it is a big achievement for them, but according to us it might be an easy job. When they come to show you that... see I have done it and unknowingly many times we start mocking at them or tell them kya kiya hain yeh?..aise thodi hota hain? ...I am sure the child must have got angry and told that 'I have done it with such hardwork ..how can you say this? ...and I am sure the child will not say this.. You take them on a small round in a garden and play with them 'Hide and Seek'. That small thing will make them happy and they will be on the top of the world. Their happiness would have no boundaries. What about us, elder people? We have branded cars, branded clothes, foreign trips, lunch in 5 star hotel but even after that we are not that happy and would have some or the other pain in heart when we return. Why so?

"Our little angels are unknowingly teaching us a lot are we ready to learn it?"

COORDINATOR'S

On average, today's kids spend seven hours a day staring at electronics like phones, laptops, tablets and television. Evidences demonstrate that kids today tend to swap active outdoor recreation for more sedentary activities, often to the detriment of their health and quality of life. If you're like most parents, you probably already knew your kids tend to spend more of their waking hours in front of a screen than playing outdoors.

As a parent, you want your kids to grow up to be healthy, well-rounded individuals with a strong sense of independence and compassion. The best way to teach these qualities to your kids is to get them outside. Encouraging children to increase their time outside and away from their devices, aids their physical health and helps them become emotionally and intellectually tougher.

Benefits of Outdoor Play -

- 1. Physical Development
- 2. Social Development
- 3. Emotional Development
- 4. Intellectual Development

Encouraging Kids to Play Outdoors - Playing on playgrounds is one of the best ways to encourage kids to be active and enjoy their time outdoors.

Playing close to home - If you can't go far, there are still many ways to get outside close to home. Consider the following activities:

- Have a scavenger hunt -You can look for specific objects or be a bit more general like: things that begin with the letter B.
- Do leaf rubbings. All you need are paper, crayons and any new leaves you can find.
- Get active. Play a game like hopscotch.
- Learn something new. Try yoga or exercising.

In sum up we can conclude that outdoor play is important.

MAKE A WISH: VISIT TO OLD AGE HOME BY GRADE V STUDENTS

Students of Grade V of Anand Niketan Maninagar visited Sharda Shanti Dham old age home where more than 40 elderly residents live and they were gifted with grocery including tins of edible oil, flour packets, tea leaves packets, pure ghee packets, salt packets, all kinds of pulses, rice, jaggery which was bought by the khari-kamai i.e. the money earned by our students during Diwali Vacation by doing voluntary jobs at home and in the neighbourhood. Our students' visit overwhelmed them and it could be seen in their eyes. As Osho says, 'It's natural for parents to love their children. If children love their parents it's extraordinary'. And our students are that 'extraordinary' because they love their parents and all elderly people as well. They spent some good time there by reciting lovely poems, singing songs for them, narrating stories and even played Garba with them. They all looked blissful in kids company. It was an insightful experience for all as they came back home with not only memories, but also with a lot of blessings showered by the elderly people of the Ashram.

SUSTAINABLE VERSES

Focus on the melody of droplets, On the face of the earth To shield them from disappearing Isn't it our responsibility from birth?

Look at the tallest of the buildings, But are they serene? Like the taller mountains, Rather clutter-clatter of machines

Look around you, do you see starvation? Do you acknowledge the value of food you waste? Nevertheless, in this era nobody understands, certainly, everyone is in haste.

Maybe the resources aren't scarce enough today
For us to recognize what inaccebility feels,
No denial, materials are vital, but for the improvised innocents, it's nothing but poverty that kills.

Let's take a pause, to become solicitous, Work towards others, for a change. Let's make development sustainable.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

THE SUSTAINABLE VERSES EARTH SAYS.....

Courtesy by : Harshika Agrawal X - Pegasus

Let's discuss about Sustainable Development Goals,
First is to reduce population sweet souls
People are dying out of hunger,
Goals to prevent it from being more longer.

Bad sanitization is making our health sell,
Aim is to improve our health and make it well.

Gender equality is must

Don't take it as a mind of dust.

Decent work and economical growth should be there, just don't sit at chair.

Industry, innovation and infrastructure is the key,

Don't take it as free

Quality education is the path to success,

People don't have free access.

Responsible consumption and production is the core,

Don't just sit and roar.

Climate actions should be enhanced, or else your own life would be challenged.

Life below water and on land should be upgraded, or else our life would be degraded.

Resources are less, use it wisely Follow sustainable development and live nicely.

If you can't count the Drops of rain,
Then
What to expect from others

- Pari Kadakiya

Time is precious,
BECAUSE
Present "NOW" is the only time
When we have power to act...
And we can't even bring it back.

Neither our future is in our hands, Nor others Then why to count one's chickens before they hatch.....

Love For Nature Will Never Die

I love nature's music And summer time songs, In the forest her great singers Gather in throngs.

The wind plays the harp And the birds take the tune The bass part is sung By the man on the moon.

Each one of his part To the very last letter And even our radio Doesn't sound better.

NO MATTER.....

No matter how ugly you are

No matter how short you are

No matter how weak you are

In the eyes of those people who never cared about you

Until the last time

When you helped to do their pending works

People are always opportunistic

But you have to be realistic

You should always remember

You are the only one who can make this world better.

INSPIRATIONAL WRITE UP

We say things are beautiful but no, they aren't beautiful...we think so just because our thinking is beautiful....if we don't have good thinking... we can call the most beautiful thing the worst....so it's better to make your thinking as pure as you can......

"Good and Bad Deeds"

Your one bad deed, will overcome your good deeds, Don't let the monster come out, so as to destroy the inner angel of yours.

There's a story of a king named:
Raavana, having a great knowledge;
with a heart of courage,
defeating the Gods.

But then came his ego; which became the reason of his defeat. in front of Almighty Lord Rama.

At the end, we can say that: bad deeds attract dozens, whereas good deeds attract thousands.

The cloud of bad deeds can hide, The Sun of good deeds and hope.

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE

While people preserve their language; it preserves the marks of liberty. There is an ecstasy that marks the summit of life, and beyond which life cannot rise. And such is the paradox of living, this ecstasy comes when one is most alive, and it comes as a complete forgetfulness that one is alive.

DISTANCE EDUCATION

Classrooms are new, But students are old
Books are new, But teachers are virtual
Pens are inked, But papers are blank
Friends are online, But friendship remains offline
Homes are full, But playgrounds are empty

Learning is essential

WAY OF LIFE

The day we are born,

Lights of happiness were thrown all over.

The journey of dreams begins;

Eyes shimmer with joy and tears

Picture of life becomes clear

With each passing day life becomes dear,

But the day of our death is to abrupt

And then people speak of brighter side of our life.

What a way of life!

KEY TO HAPPINESS

Happiness is a state of mind needed by our body to stay healthy. It is a reward system in our body that can be attached to anything. If you attach your happiness to the things which control like not in your are expectations from other people, buying things and travelling, then you will be always at the losing end. It's like giving your house keys to a stranger and then spending your time looking for that stranger to enter your own house.

'The selfish world needs more giving trees'

I didn't witness the dark night, I wouldn't be blessed with sunshine.

Because tough times are there to fight,
So that, you would get more power to outshine,

If I didn't fulfill the need of this selfish world,
I wouldn't have been established a giving tree.
But everything has price to pay in this world,
Not even being kind and helpful is free.

Don't Quit

So what if you fail, why to be so sad?

So what if you fail in exam or some tests.

What is that which motivates you, think about the future that creates you.

So what if you fail, why keep it to yourself, talk to your family, talk to your friends.

So what if you fail,

yes, the world might be tough but you truly lose, where you decide to give up...

Partnership to achieve the Goal

We shall unite, in this fight, against indigence and help the poor to rise.
To curb in equality, treat everyone alike,
and to work and move towards a better life.

Innovate together and create opportunities, help each other to create triumphant communities. Frawl the problem, not the people around you, do not let the hiccups in your way bound you.

Let us try not to waste food or water, things we take for granted, might save lives of others.
Let's not hoard and let us share things we have, everybody deserves to be happy, every feeling you feel, some feelings they have.

Can't you see the world is dying,
flood and landslides, the sky is crying.

The ocean, bleeds the plastic that we feed,
the world needs change and we the new generation are the lead.
We shall grow together and,
merry shall be everyone's day and night.

Though there are lots of problems in reaching the light, in this fight, there is no looking back, but we shall do always right.

OUR EARTH

On the Earth, on the earth, We have taken birth.

Sometimes as strong as gale and, Sometimes as gentle as breeze; It stands with us, To fulfil all our needs.

It asks for just favour, A pledge, for an endeavour, To protect it from danger.

It is our teacher,
She teaches moral values;
She says, "Enjoy the beauty,
but never forget your duty."

The threat is of global warming, And it is a serious warning; For Earth's sake, Do not let it to be too late.

RIDDLES/JOKES/STORIES

'We are all God's children'

Once I was reading an inspirational speech by Martin Luther King Junior, which was delivered to over 2,50,000 civil Right supporters from the steps of the Lincoln memorial in Washington DC, This is one of the most iconic speech in the American History.

The speech is....'I say to you today, my friends, so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream. I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal."

"I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the colour of their skin but by the content of their character."

- Martin Luther King Jr

I, Parv Vyas also think that we together are "all God's children" and created equally by the creator as this beautiful creation irrespective of our caste, creed and colour of skin. Each creation is beautiful to accomplish Mother Earth.

LION AND THE BEAR

Once upon a time, a lion and a bear lived in a jungle. They laughed, played and ate their meals together. One day the lion asked the bear, "Can we go to hunt the turtle and eat it?". Bear said, "It seems a very good idea!" We will hunt it and divide it into two parts, first will be yours and second will be mine. They went and killed the turtle and ate it. Now they went back to the jungle and played hide and seek.

HOW TO CUT A PIE

One morning, a squirrel was walking, and suddenly it saw a board, it was written "PIE CONTEST". It ran towards its home and took a basket and collected acorns for its ' acorn pie'. The frog came and asked squirrel, if she will share the pie with him, squirrel replied that it was for the pie contest. Next came the mouse and the squirrel replied him the same, but he also wanted a piece of pie, so it asked for itself and squirrel said "BIG NO". Since her pie was hot the squirrel allowed it to cool and went for a walk. Meanwhile, a pig came and ate all the pie. After some time when the squirrel came along with her friends, they saw the pie was not at its place. The pig said that he is the judge of the pie contest, and squirrel is the winner of the contest, and everyone became happy.

THE RED SHOW

Once upon a time, in a far away village there lived a little girl named, "Karen".

She lived with her mother in a small cottage. Karen was a cheerful girl full of curiosity. She was very close to her mother and would often ask her questions about little things like, where does light on the earth come from? It's the sun that emits light on the earth replied her mother. Karen and mother were very poor, so Karen just had one dress, a ragged doll and a single pair of wooden shoes that her mother had made for her.

Sanvi Learned a Lesson

It was Diwali time. The market was flooded with diyas, rangoli colours and crackers. I was very excited to buy crackers. Me and my father went to the market to buy crackers. On the way, I saw a stall full of gooseberries. My father stopped at a chemist shop to buy medicine. The gooseberry stall was just beside it. I picked up one gooseberry as the seller was not there. When my father got to know about it, he scolded me and was a bit angry. He asked me to put it back and I put it back. But I asked him to buy it for me. He told me that he will buy them later.

Then we went to a crackers shop. We bought many varieties of crackers like sparkle sticks, fountains, chakras, strings etc. On the way back to home, I asked papa to stop at the gooseberry stall as he had promised me. The seller gave me one gooseberry free as he told me that he had seen me stealing gooseberry from far away. He called me a good child because I had realized my mistake and kept it back. We went back home happily.

Moral of the story: We should take permission before taking things of others.

खुद के होने का एहसास, सच में उस दिन आता था।

मम्मी की खीर और पूरी...समोसेमन को खूब लुभाते थे,

What empties a cup:

- * Stress and strain
- * Rejection by peers
- * Loneliness and isolation
- * Yelling and punishment
- * Failing

'Let's decide what kind of cup do we want to give to our children.'
